System of city transportation

- One could choose the service of BKV - buses, trams, trolley buses, subway lines, HÉV (local trains)
- From the viewpoint of people living with disability there are different level of accessibility, nevertheless there are buses working in dispatcher system

Main barriers: the accessible lines aren't connected well in time and space;

several physical barriers embarrass the use of the system

What is the alternative?

Assist Services

set up as a compulsory task from 2003 by the Act of Social Services client based services for several fields of life

our example is „Motivation Foundation”

- Information and advisory service
- Personal assistance service
- Transportation service
- The organization has special employment-, and enforcement of interests office
- Implementing ESF projects

Nationwide methodical centre
Good practices
Innovative attitude
Professional experiences

O

More effective services with cross-district, (later on cross-region) network of service providers

W

Financially unstable
Dependence on tenders

T

In case of budget restriction, could be in a critical situation

“Together for Each Other” Fund 2005

- call for tender with 100.000€ budget to develop transportation services
- made the possibility both for district municipalities or NGO's to purchase vehicles for transportation
- in the technical evaluation and decision-making process it was a main viewpoint to support organizations with vocational rehabilitation programs (in particular ESF supported projects)

“Together for Each Other” Fund 2005

- monitoring of the program is in process
- want to get informed on capacity utilization indicators
- In case of overlaps with the 2006 tender on supporting employment and vocational rehabilitation programs, we pay attention to utilization indicators of vehicles concerning the employment projects

“Equal Opportunity in the Cultural Field” program

- helps to reach cultural services
 - to install inductive loop systems in theatres and cinemas
 - talking book collection for the Capital Szabó Ervin Library
 - home delivery of books
 - people with disability to get to the cultural institutions
- assist services involved in the last two elements

As a part of Urban Planning

- the goal is to have an accessible public transport suitable for everyone
- develop transportation services to fit the personal needs of stakeholders
- In long term planning it could be the tool of expansion of employment, reaching cultural, leisure, sport services, etc.
